

Birthday Cake

Oh, get your hands of it, it don't belong to you
Oh, get your hands of it, it don't belong to you
I'm gonna give you some of it, then I don't care what you do

Well, I stick it in the oven, I fill it full of cream
It's the best damn thing I've ever seen

Oh, get your hands of it, it don't belong to you
~~Oh, get your hands of it, it don't belong to you~~
I'm gonna give you some of it, then I don't care what you do

I cut it once now, I cut it twice
Third time I cut it, well it wasn't very nice

Oh, get your hands of it, it don't belong to you
~~Oh, get your hands of it, it don't belong to you~~
I'm gonna give you some of it, then I don't care what you do

Guitar Solo

Ma and Pa went down to the cellar
I don't know what happened, but I heard Ma yell

Oh, get your hands of it, it don't belong to you
~~Oh, get your hands of it, it don't belong to you~~
I'm gonna give you some of it, then I don't care what you do

We got it in the kitchen, we got it in the hall
I got it on my finger, and I flung it on the wall

Oh, get your hands of it, it don't belong to you
~~Oh, get your hands of it, it don't belong to you~~
I'm gonna give you some of it, then I don't care what you do

Guitar Solo

Now, wait a minute baby, Johnny made a mistake
Cause what I'm talking 'bout here is a birthday cake

Oh, get your hands of it, it don't belong to you
~~Oh, get your hands of it, it don't belong to you~~
I'm gonna give you some of it, then I don't care what you do
